

Above—Mrs. Warren G. Harding buying the first thrift bond of the new five year series from Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon.
(c) Harris & Ewing.

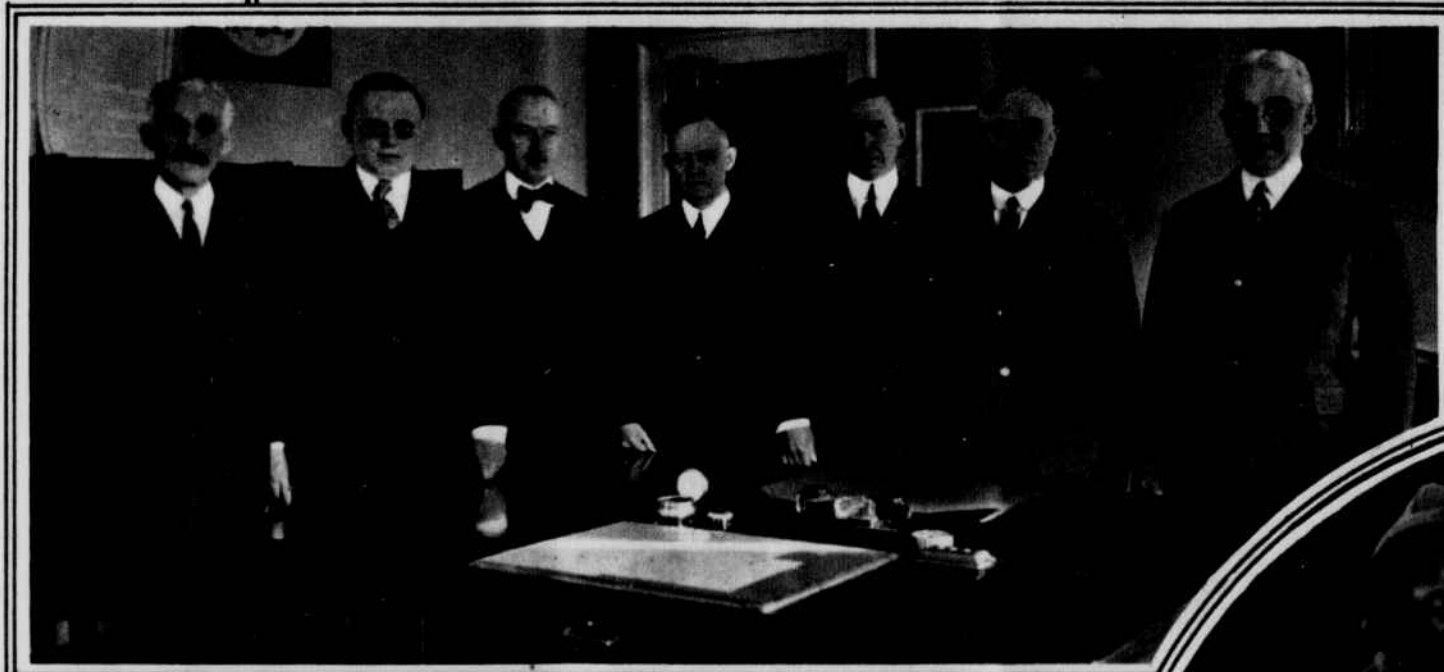

This photograph shows the dirigible Roma, purchased from the Italian Government for $200,000, arriving at Bolling Field, Washington, after a six hour battle with a storm.
(c) Harris & Ewing.

Ambassador Ricci of Italy formally transferring the Roma to Secretary of War Weeks. At the Ambassador's left are Col. Patrick, head of the U. S. Air Service; Miss Fonrose Wainwright, who christened the ship, and Gen. Vicari, Chief of Staff of the Italian army. International.

Mrs. Philip Patchin is the wife of Philip Patchin of the State Department, who is charged with giving out news of what takes place at the Washington conference.
(c) Underwood & Underwood.

The Federal Reserve Board as at present constituted includes the seven members shown in this picture. Left to right: Secretary Mellon, Governor W. P. G. Harding, Vice-Governor Edmund Platt, Charles S. Hamlin, Adolph C. Miller, Comptroller D. R. Crissinger and J. R. Mitchell.
(c) Harris & Ewing.

When Princess Juliana of Holland goes skating she has an official escort. On this occasion she was accompanied by the adjutant of the General Staff.
Underwood & Underwood.

These New York children are enjoying themselves at an open air rink. They are the Misses Mary Rogers and Betty and Lida Morris.
Central News.

Mrs. H. Kozaki, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and Woman's Home Missionary Society of Japan, photographed after a call at the White House.
(c) Harris & Ewing.